Warrants Issued for the Arrest of Senator M. S. Quay, His Son and Others.

THE QUAYS SURRENDER THEMSELVES.

Accused of Conspiring With Cashier Hopkins to Use the Public Money for Their Own Use.

Ex-State Treasurer Haywood and Charles H. McKee, Law Partner of Lumsden, Lyon, Have Not Yet Been Arrested—Friends Say It is a Conspiracy.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Warrants were issued Monday for the arrest of United States Senator Matthew Quay, his son Richard R. Quay, ex-State Treasurer Benj. J. Haywood and Charles H. McKee, of Pittsburgh, law partner of Lumsden, Lyon, Gov. Lyon. They are accused of conspiracy with John S. Hopkins, formerly cashier of the People's bank, to use public money for their own use. Hopkins killed himself last March, shortly before the bank's failure.

Senator Quay and his son came up from Atlantic City as soon as they

"Senator Quay and his son Richard both had their personal notes deposited at the bank, the last of which matured after the bank had closed its doors. These notes were all promptly paid when due, and neither Mr. Quay or his son is indebted to the bank one dollar that I know of. My feelings toward Mr. Quay and the other men are of the most friendly character. Mr. Quay and I had our differences in days gone by, but they were patched up long ago."

The news struck political circles of all shades of faith like a thunderbolt, and a variety of explanations were given and discussed throughout the day. Secretary of the Commonwealth David Martin said he knew nothing beyond the newspaper statements. The affair acquires additional significance from the fact that it comes in the midst of one of the most bitter campaigns ever fought between Quay and his opponents, involving the question of his reelection to the senate.

IT'S BEING ENGINEERED IN CLEVELAND.

An Attempt to Unite All Warship-Building, Armory-Plate and Gun-Making Interests in One Syndicate.

Their Plan is to Secure a Canal From the Great Lakes to the Sea—Yards for Building Ships Could Then Be Located on the Lakes.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 4.—An evening paper says: One of the most gigantic projects for the combination of capital is being engineered in this city.

It is nothing less than an attempt to unite the warship-building interests and the armor plate and gun-making interests of the world into one great syndicate, whose factories shall be located near Cleveland. Men of international reputation in the financial and manufacturing world are in the deal.

BRUNSWICK, GA., FLOODED.

Ons Thousand Houses and Stores Damaged—The Property Lost Will Foot Up Half a Million Dollars.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 4.—The Morning News correspondent at Brunswick, Ga., has filed the following bulletin at 11:30 p. m.: Brunswick and its vicinity flooded and inundated; a thousand houses and stores damaged; one-half million dollars property loss and list of dead, now small, is increasing. Three thousand people sought refuge from rising waters and 50 blocks in heart of city was under six feet of water for 12 hours. Left on special train with two operators and instruments to tap wire. Struck an opening here and believe I am the only newspaper man that got out of Brunswick with the story of greatest flood since the sea island affair. Seventy miles of wrecked country just passed through. Have left two men in Brunswick penetrating woods and islands in boats. They are instructed to leave Brunswick Monday night and come until they reach me with the story of Monday's developments.

Julius Mary Deeds, Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 4.—Thomas Harrison shot and killed his wife and then drew a razor across his own throat. Two children, whom he intended to kill, escaped. Harrison was jealous.

The builders of the battleship Kentucky say the big fighting machine is 75 per cent. complete.

Perhaps the woman who knows most about women's costumes in England is Adeline, Duchess of Bedford. Her Green book, special permission from the Home Secretary to visit the convict prisons in which women are incarcerated, has been published. It is a very and very excellent one. She has made of the great trust in her. With her delicate, ladylike, she does everything in her power to give the prisoners under her charge a fresh start, under improved conditions. The Duchess is a high-spirited woman in the prime of life, and when speaking from the platform her charming voice is curiously like that of her sister, Lady Henry Somerset.

heard of their intended arrest. They promptly surrendered themselves and Magistrate Jernon held them in $5,000 bail each for a hearing at noon next Thursday. David H. Lane, the republican leader, became their bondsman, and Monday afternoon they returned to the seashore. By advice of their attorney they declined to discuss the case. They will come back to the city on Wednesday so as to be in full time for the hearing.

Mr. Haywood is in Montana and Mr. McKee in New York.

United States Senator Penrose, who was with his colleague, spoke freely after the latter's departure for Atlantic City.

"I presume Senator Quay will not make any statement at this juncture," said he, "regarding this last disastrous attack of his malevolent enemies, though he doubtless will in the proper time. There is, however, no reason why I, as his ally and personal friend, should be silent."

"Attempted assassination of character has been almost the sole weapon of attack employed by Senator Quay's opponents for several years, and the methods pursued have been augmented in viciousness and vindictiveness as their futility has been demonstrated. As the last despairing effort of unscrupulous conspirators comes this brutal wave of the opposition, which they have had upon their programme for weeks."

The warrants were made out on Saturday by Magistrate Jernon at the instance of District Attorney Graham and on the affidavit of Charles F. Myers, a detective and acted on in information furnished by Thomas W. Barlow, receiver of the People's bank. District Attorney Graham said that from evidence in the shape of letters and papers furnished to him he believed it his duty to begin proceedings. He added:

"I propose to have a hearing as quickly as possible and to produce at that hearing all the facts necessary to a binding case. Some facts will be reserved until the time of the trial. If the state of affairs as represented to me is true it ought to be exposed. This rottenness ought to be shown up no matter upon whom it reflects. It is not my practice to speak in advance of the trial of a case, and I will say nothing further as to its merits."

Mr. Graham expressed a firm determination to proceed vigorously. James McKee, former president of the defunct People's bank, said he had known the warrants were to be issued, although he had nothing to do with the action. He asserted ignorance of any transactions justifying it. Mr. McKee added:

seriously burned in the forest fire, was brought to this city Monday in a critical condition and it is thought he can not live. A 4-year-old daughter of Rudolph Miller and a 7-year-old son of Nola Semon were found among the woods one and one-half miles north-east of Almena so badly burned that they can not recover. Mrs. Frank Heinricher at Poskin Lake, died Monday morning as the result of fright and exhaustion in fighting fires.

MOB WORK IN CHINA.

Foreigners, Including Americans, Are Subject to Daily Attacks by Mob Forces in the Extremities.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Peking correspondent of the Daily Chronicle telegraphing Saturday by way of Shanghai, says: "Mob is menacing foreigners. The work of the Italian minister was attacked Sunday while on her way to church, and several Americans coming from the railway were wounded by stones. The foreign ministers have sent a collective note to the government asking for the suppression of these outrages and the punishment of the culprits."

Yamamoto, leader of the rebellion in the Shu Chuen province, has issued a proclamation ordering the extermination of all foreigners.

Dr. Nasser Guilford Remended.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Nancy Guilford, the midwife of Bridgeport, Ct., or the woman suspected of being Dr. Guilford's accomplice in the murder of a woman, was arrested at Bow street police court here Monday for a week after evidence had been presented proving her identity with the woman who landed at Liverpool last week on the steamer Vancouver. The initials "N. A. G." were found on articles in her possession.

Rice Crop Damaged.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 4.—Sunday's hurricane and the storm of two weeks have done but small damage to property in this vicinity, but the loss to rice growers was very heavy. Even the damage done by the great storm of 1893 has been exceeded. It is variously estimated by the planters and rice brokers that the loss will be from 30 to 40 per cent.

The Schools in Manila to Resume.

MANILA, Oct. 4.—The United States transport Scandia has arrived here and the United States transport Albatross has departed. The American authorities here have invited all the school teachers to resume the instruction of their classes. The schools have been closed since the surrender of Manila to the Americans.
